

Back Bay Farm Newsletter December 2009

Not Shadow's shadow...

School Lesson Price Change

All school rider lesson prices are now $5.00 less. Group $60, privates $75. Early payment discounts discontinued. One price for everyone, pay as you go. (No lessons Dec. 1-4, lessons resume Dec. 5th).

Memberships

Links to renew all 2010 memberships are now on our website! Dec. 1st marks the new year to renew USEF/USHJA (can be done online), plus MHC, NEHC for any points & medals to count. If you haven't renewed & show at Canterbrook, bring separate checks to fill out all 3 memberships there.

Welcome

To new boarder Lorraine Beal & her mare, Margarita, aka Rita who will be getting legged up over the winter.

Joining Forces

Many congrats to Jessen Edlund on her new lease of Captain for the coming year. This looks like a great partnership in the making.

Call Me AL Fans

Sale or lease option on the Awesome AI, a most consistent, willing & winning show horse is available now for the right rider. For details, please see Robin.

Blanket Safety

Please undo blankets properly - back to front: leg straps, surcingles, chest. Put ON blankets front first. This is an important safety issue! Straps tickling or tangled on horse legs can cause kicking, spooking & ugly accidents. Do it right!

Florida Sunshine

Ali Cotreau & Carolyn Atten. will join their steeds in Wellington on weekends during the season for training & showing under the waving palms. Anyone else wish to escape for a shorter break, arrangements can be made to experience the balmy show scene down south. See Robin.

BBF Open House Party Sun. Dec.6th
Please join us - everyone -10-2pm!

Xmas Schedule

Barn closes noon Dec. 24th & closed all day 25th. Barn is open 26th-27th but no lessons on Sat./Sun. Lessons as usual the following week Dec.29-Jan 3rd, 2010.

Upcoming: Canterbrook 12/12 (all medal classes offered!)

* Seasons Greetings Be Festive Celebrate Solstice Hug Your Horse, Dog, Cat, Family Be Merry Peace *

* Seasons Greetings Be Festive Celebrate Solstice Hug Your Horse, Dog, Cat, Family Be Merry Peace *