

Back Bay Farm Newsletter May 2009

Customer Referral Perk

Refer a new customer who signs up for a lesson package & receive a free private lesson!

Horse Showing 101

For those interested in showing for the first time, testing your skills or just to experience what it's like at a local venue, discounted fees for three shows applies.

Snazzy New Website Features...

Check out our new look online. Awesome new videos of Huey & Havana showing in Wellington, FL ridden by oh-so skilled James Lala in the jumpers & hunters.

Plus, we are now interactive. Click on Joy's Blog to read her thoughts about teaching, riding, horses, life. Visit our PonyPage where you can text message your favorite school steed to ask questions, post your thoughts or any comments. This could be really fun!

Summer Sessions

Calling all riders -- workshops designed for all BBF riders. One week, each month (camp dates), special format of workshops & clinics will replace regular lessons.

Upcoming: Fieldstone 5/14-17, Sandy Point 5/24, BBF Schooling Show 5/31.

Huey Hits the Big Time in Wellington.

Pony Rides for Special Occasions

This will be offered for small groups for non-riders, younger siblings or children to come to the farm for a different activity.

Mud Reminder

Please check/clean your halter & boots on a regular basis. If your horse is dirty, chances are their accessories are too.

Great Success

BBF horses & riders started the show season right. Everyone has been riding well with all the horses seemingly happy to be out in public. All the adults are cruising through their medal points. Special congrats to new partners: Anne & Anna Roberts both scooped their MHC medals in their debut rides on Prento. Carolyn Attenborough has been smiling through 3 shows aboard her new leased mare Proper Legado, aka Lotti & Madeleine Stowell collected reserve champion (& won the hack!) with John Doe at Castleneck.

