

Back Bay Farm Newsletter November 2008

Maine Champs: Ali & Jackson

Finals Wrap Up

At the Ariat National Final in MD, Ali had a great experience placing a worthy 11th and Jackson got hunter ribbons in top company. Dominique and Mosaic made the cut at Mass Finals in the mini-medals while Cindy, Amy, Judy & Jessen posted good scores. Heather, Alanna, Caroline Strouss and Louisa S. all had strong rides. At NE Finals, Haley & Carolyn rode the challenging junior course, Ali pinned 5th in the open, Amy put in a solid open round in her first appearance & Louisa A. aboard awesome Al moved up from 12th to finish an impressive 8th out of 70 adults!

Upcoming shows: Cornerstone 11/1, Castleneck 11/23, BBF 11/29, Evenstride 11/30. Plus, James Lala Clinic *Tentative for Early December

Trail Ride & Cook Out

For a change of scene, sign up for a trail ride to Bradley Palmer Sun/Nov. 16th. We can take several groups. School riders please sign up early to reserve a horse. Cost $100 boarders, $120 school riders - includes lunch.

Heads Up ! Barn Schooling Show

In order to host a barn horse show on Sat/Nov.29, we need (at least) 30 riders to participate. Classes open to all lesson riders from leadline on up. Great first experience or good practice in front of a judge at home. Sign-up sheet posted.

Note to Parents ...

Especially of young riders, please check in with instructors once per week for any news or changes. Also, check the schedule board & invoices for notes such as holiday dates, etc. BBF makes every effort to keep everyone informed!

Enzo Update

Now known as Union Jack, the ex-racehorse has landed in a very happy home in Ipswich with 15-year-old event rider, Rebecca. He has started dressage lessons, jumps cross-country bravely and has a pygmy goat friend. *See him in action (& others) on the website.